CONCERT BAND CLINICIAN

MIKE
LEWIS

Mike Lewis has been a music educator for 44 years, a judge for US Bands for 14 years, and judged for the University Interscholastic League (UIL) in Texas for 28 years. He is the retired Head Band Director and Fine Arts Supervisor for the Burnet CISD in Burnet, Texas.

Bands under his direction were awarded first divisions in UIL marching competition 24 times and advanced to UIL area marching contest 9 straight times in Texas class 3A and 4A. Marching bands under his direction advanced to the UIL Texas State Marching Competition 5 times.

He is a popular clinician and judge with both marching and concert programs, sharing his insights across the country.

Mr. Lewis studied instrumental music education at Howard Payne University and Wayland Baptist University where he received his bachelor's degree in 1980. He earned a Masters of Science degree from East Texas State University (Texas A&M, Commerce) in 1990.

The Masonic Lodge presented him with the "Marabou B. Lamar" award in 1999. In 2001 Rotary International named Mr. Lewis a "Paul Harris Fellow." In 2010, he was named the "Outstanding Educator of the Year" for the Burnet CISD. In 2021, he was inducted into the Burnet CISD "Hall of Honor."

Mr. Lewis is a member of Texas Music Educators Association (TMEA), Association of Texas Small School Bands (ATSSB), Texas Music Adjudicators Association (TMAA), and the Texas Bandmasters Association (TBA).

He and his wife Judy have been married for 40 years and have two adult sons.

WIND ENSEMBLE CLINICIAN

DR. BRETT RICHARDSON

In his twenty-third year as a conductor and music educator, Brett A. Richardson serves as the Director of Bands and Baenziger Professor of Music at the Texas Lutheran University School of Music. He is also the Conductor and Artistic Director of the San Antonio Harmonie Ensemble, a professional, community chamber winds group named National Winner of the 2023 American Prize competition for community bands/wind ensembles.

Sought after nationally for his versatility and energy as a conductor-teacher, Dr. Richardson has led heartfelt performances with performers of all ages across the United States, in addition to serving as an invited presenter to the Midwest Clinic (three times) and thirteen different state-affiliated music education conferences. Recent professional engagements include the internationally attended 2024 Indiana University Summer Music Clinic and band adjudicator for the 2024 Citation of Excellence competition sponsored by the Foundation for Music Education. In past years, Dr. Richardson has held conducting residencies at various universities and collaborated with a wide variety of ensembles including members of the San Antonio Philharmonic, San Antonio Brass Band, U.S. Army National Guard 36th Infantry Band, Heart of Texas Concert Band, Austin Symphonic Band, and Southern Indiana Wind Ensemble. In 2022, he conducted San Antonio's first fully staged performance of Arnold Schoenberg's Pierrot Lunaire, Op. 21.

A published author, Dr. Richardson co-authored the textbook Conducting Enrichment through Sentia Publications and chapters in GIA's Teaching Music through Performance in Band series and Program Notes: A Comprehensive Guide to Band Directing edited by Dr. John Denis. In 2018, Dr. Richardson was an invited participant in the inaugural H. Robert Reynolds Conducting Institute at the Midwest Clinic. Before his appointment at TLU, Dr. Richardson proudly served as a public-school music educator in Texas and on the music faculties of Stephen F. Austin State University and the University of the Incarnate Word where he was a recipient of the 2019 UIW Provost's Legacy in Teaching Award.

Dr. Richardson's professional affiliations include the Texas Music Educators Association, Texas Bandmasters Association, College Band Directors National Association, and Phi Beta Mu International Honorary Bandmasters Fraternity. He holds degrees in wind conducting and music education from Stephen F. Austin State University, East Texas A&M University (formerly Texas A&M University-Commerce), and the world-renowned Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. He resides in Cibolo, TX with his wife, Jacquelyn Matava, a highly-accomplished mezzo-soprano and voice professor, their son Jack, and shih-tzu, Lanny.
