Dr. BJ Brooks has composed hundreds of varied works. His music is enjoyed by a wide range of performers, from drum corps to youth choirs around the world. His scores have been honored with numerous awards, has been included as educational material at several universities, frequents the UIL State Marching Band competition, is included in the acclaimed book series Teaching Music Through Performance in Band, and is found on repertoire lists including Texas' PML. He has been featured and directed at conventions such as the Texas Music Educators Association, Texas Bandmaster Association, College Band Directors National Association, Society of Composers, The Midwest Clinic, and the International Society for Contemporary Music. BJ is an active clinician and adjudicator with concert ensembles and marching bands across the Southwest.

Dr. Brooks is Professor of Music Theory and Composition at West Texas A&M University in Canyon, Texas. In 2021 he became the 8th director of the Sound of West Texas Buffalo Marching Band, established in 1917. In addition BJ is the Assistant Artistic Director of the Amarillo Youth Choirs and pianist at First Methodist Church in Canyon, Texas. He resides with his wife, Melanie, and two children, Meghan and Tobin on ten grassy acres south of Canyon.

Dr. David A. Waybridge received his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees at Marshall University and the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in orchestral conducting from the Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. He taught initially at Wahama High School in Mason, West Virginia and since that time has served as Director of Bands at Ferrum College, Plymouth State College, and Director of Bands and Orchestra at McNeese State University. Dr. Waybright is currently Director of Bands at the University of Florida, where he holds the rank of professor and is the head of the conducting area. He directs the wind symphony and supervises the band program and the graduate and undergraduate conducting curricula.

Dr. Waybright is in demand as a guest conductor and clinician with wind bands, orchestras, and choirs, and has appeared in that capacity in most of the 50 states, throughout Europe, South America, Asia and Australia. He has held residencies at many of the nation's leading music schools. In addition, he is active in the commissioning and performance of new music and has won the praise of composers such as Dana Wilson, Michael Torke, Donald Grantham, John Corigliano and Leslie Bassett for his interpretation of their works. There are many recordings available featuring the University of Florida Wind Symphony under his direction. He is founder and principal conductor for the American Chamber Winds, a professional touring and recording ensemble. Dr. Waybright is an elected member of the American Bandmasters Association where he has served on the Board of Directors for two terms and was President of the organization from 2013-2014. He is a lifetime member of the World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles. He is also a member of the College Band Director's National Association, Music Educators National Convention and Florida Music Educators Association. Ensembles under his direction have performed invited concerts at conferences sponsored by all of those organizations. Dr. Waybright is also a member of Pi Kappa Lambda and an honorary member of Phi Mu Alpha, Tau Beta Sigma and Kappa Kappa Psi. He is a National Arts Associate honorary of Sigma Alpha Iota.

Steve Owen is the Director of Jazz Studies at the University of Oregon for 34 years, Steve Owen is a Professor Emeritus of Music and internationally known composer, arranger, saxophonist, and educator. Steve's music has been performed and recorded by college and professional ensembles world-wide including recordings by the Frankfurt Radio Big Band (HR Big Band), Taipei Jazz Orchestra, Eastman Jazz Ensemble, Miami Studio Jazz Orchestra, University of Northern Colorado Jazz Lab I University of North Texas One O'Clock Jazz Band, and the University of Oregon's Oregon Jazz Ensemble. Steve's own CD, Stand Up Eight, was released by Origin/OA2 Records in 2013 featuring nine original works for large jazz ensemble. As a saxophonist, Steve appears regularly as a soloist at high school and college festivals and has had the good fortune to perform in small group settings with a number of jazz's finest musicians including Dick Hyman, Frank Wess, Clark Terry, and Randy Brecker. Owen is featured on Dan Cavanagh's Pulse and the Dan Gailey Jazz Orchestra, What Did You Dream, CD. His composition and arrangements are published by UNC Jazz Press and Heritage JazzWorks.

A respected educator, Owen has been recognized with two of the UO's top of awards for distinguished teaching: the Ersted Award and the university's Excellence in Teaching Award. He has directed All-State jazz ensembles in Colorado, Connecticut, Arizona, Texas, Nevada, California, Nebraska, Kansas, New Mexico, Montana, and Minnesota as well as Oregon. Under Owen's direction, the Oregon Jazz Ensemble has performed at every major jazz festival and educational conference in the Pacific Northwest, has toured Europe twice performing at the Montreux, Vienne, Umbria, and La Spezia international jazz festivals, and was selected the "Outstanding College Big Band" at the Reno Jazz Festival each year that the group attended over the span of 15 years. The group also performed at the 2005 International Association of Jazz Educator's Convention in Long Beach, California and was a 2016 and 2008 Downbeat Award Winner in the College Big Band category.
